* Unaudited data

Over the second quarter of 2016, STENTYS continued to deliver a solid commercial performance with revenues up 41% to €2.1 million. This growth momentum again reflects the demand from cardiologists for the Xposition stents. Over the first half of 2016, STENTYS recorded a 40% increase in sales to €3.6 million.

- A secure financial structure

At June 30, 2016, STENTYS had a cash position of €18.3 million.

Christophe Lottin, Chief Executive Officer of STENTYS, comments: " This significant increase in revenues for the sixth consecutive quarter shows how STENTYS team is able to build the Company's growth with a strategy of product differentiation. I strongly believe that the Self-Apposing technology, combined with the easier delivery technique from the new catheter, provides a unique benefit to cardiologists and their patients, which is to guarantee perfect implantation in complex coronary pathologies."

- Upcoming financial publication

STENTYS expects to publish its financial results for the first half of 2016 on September 15, 2016.

About STENTYS

STENTYS is developing and commercializing innovative solutions for the treatment of patients with complex artery disease. STENTYS' Self-Apposing® drug-eluting stents are designed to adapt to vessels with ambiguous or fluctuating diameters in order to prevent the malapposition problems associated with conventional stents. The APPOSITION clinical trials in the treatment of acute myocardial infarction showed a very low one year mortality rate and a faster arterial healing compared to conventional stents. The company's product portfolio also includes MiStent SES®, a coronary DES whose new drug delivery mechanism is designed to match vessel response, and is marketed through STENTYS' commercial network in Europe, the Middle East, Asia and Latin America.
